Year After Year, RE/MAX® Has the #1 Most Trusted Real Estate Agents in the USA and Canada, According to Survey

A BrandSpark® survey of American and Canadian shoppers reveals RE/MAX agents are the most trusted in the industry

DENVER – RE/MAX, the global real estate franchisor, today announced it has been recognized for having the Most Trusted Real Estate Agents in the USA* and Canada by BrandSpark International, an independent market research company. In partnership with Newsweek in the U.S., the BrandSpark Most Trusted Awards are fully determined by the responses of participants who have recently shopped in the category they are voting for in a survey of more than 20,000 participants in the U.S. and in a survey of over 15,000 participants in Canada.

RE/MAX agents, who average more sales than other real estate agents and lead the industry in professional designations, help hundreds of thousands of families buy or sell a home each year. Celebrating 50 years of helping homebuyers and sellers, RE/MAX has earned the trust of American and Canadian consumers time and again.

“The process of buying and selling homes requires a deep level of trust between the real estate agent and homebuyer or seller,” said Nick Bailey, RE/MAX President and CEO. “Helping people achieve their real estate goals is a cornerstone of the RE/MAX name and brand as we see immense value in the pursuit of homeownership. We are honored that the communities we continue to serve recognize our commitment to them and we look forward to helping more people reach this significant milestone.”

RE/MAX has a presence in more countries and territories than any other real estate brand. From a single office that opened in 1973 in Denver, Colorado, RE/MAX has grown into a global real estate network with more than 140,000 sales associates in more than 110 countries and territories.
